Canvas of Light

BEFORE YOU LOOK

1. What scenes or images do you imagine when you think of the title?
2. How might the image depict the interplay between light and art?
3. What feelings or stories do you associate with the idea of creating art?

This image captures an artist immersed in the creative process within a bright, sunlit studio. Surrounded by an array of colorful art pieces, brushes, and open paint containers, the artist focuses intently on a large canvas. The studio, bathed in natural light, enhances the vivid colors of the artwork, creating an atmosphere of intense concentration and artistic freedom.
