Provocation 33 of 50

Tides of Change

BEFORE YOU LOOK

1. What do you imagine when you think about the power and movement of tides representing change?
2. How might the image depict the dynamic and sometimes unpredictable nature of change?
3. What personal or societal transformations do you associate with the concept of changing tides?

This image portrays a distressing yet urgent scene at a beach, where the shore is littered with plastic waste, and seabirds are seen navigating through the pollution. The depiction serves as a stark reminder of the severe impact that human activities, particularly plastic waste, have on marine environments and wildlife. The visual emphasizes the pressing need for collective action and greater environmental awareness to address this escalating crisis.