Voices for Change

BEFORE YOU LOOK

1. What types of messages or causes do you think these voices are advocating for?
2. How might the image capture the power and impact of collective voices demanding change?
3. What emotions or movements do you associate with the idea of raising voices for change?

This image captures a peaceful demonstration led by a group of teenagers in an urban environment, advocating for "Free Education For All." The scene is set in a bustling city square, where the commitment and unity of the young activists are palpable, showcasing their role in driving social change.
