Provocation 35 of 50

Voices of Silence

BEFORE YOU LOOK

1. What messages or stories do you think are conveyed through silence?
2. How might the image capture the contrast between sound and silence?
3. What emotions or reflections do you associate with the concept of silent voices?

This image captures a peaceful protest in an urban setting, where people of various backgrounds are sitting on the ground with their faces covered, symbolizing unity and the fight for equality. The protesters, each with a mask or cloth covering their face, are shown sitting in solidarity on a city street.